MEN AND WOMEN SEEK POSITIONS

Cabinet Officers Sigh For Relief From Hordes of Applicants.

SHEEP AND GOATS.

Would-Be Officials Bewail Cruelty of Administration on Corners and in Other Places.

Washington, March 18.—To get relief from the hordes of office hunters was one of the serious problems which occupied the attention of the cabinet today. With Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo frankly admitting that up to the present all of his time had been occupied in listening to the importunities of the men—and in many instances the women—who would "save the nation," it was certain that some method would have to be devised to separate the sheep from the goats. And today's meeting was more or less an experience meeting along this line.

While the office seekers are bewailing the cruelty of the administration on the various street corners and alongside of the mahogany bars of the city, President Wilson and his aides are sitting tight. Only such jobs as must be filled are being disposide of. The result will be that when Congress assembles in the special session next month the administration will be prepared for "either a fight or a frolic."

Should the leaders want to oppose the executive demands lor legislation that will redeem the party pledges President Wilson can do business with the individual members. It will be a comparatively easy task for him to line up the individual members for his pet measures through the manipulation of the "fat" which every Congressman needs to hold his district. And, if necessary, the President could also capture the caucus through the same means.

Because some of the job hunters realize that this plan is to be followed, they are starting back home to return when Congress is in session. But they are comparatively few. The remainder intend to stick and make personal demands and it is to advise some plan of heading them off that the cabinet members are worrying. How to do it without hurting the feelings of some of the influential politicians is a problem but it will probably be solved on the McAdoo plan of receiving visitors only during the morning hours.

Fighting in Mexico.

Defeated in their first attempt to capture Nuevo Laredo, the little band of Caranzistas, wro surprised the federal garrison of the Mexican border town early yesterday encamped in the hills several miles to the south last night, eventually to wait the arirval of reinforcements before attacking again. It is reported that more troops are hurrying to the aid of both forces and possibly arrived last night. In this event a renewal of the battle was expected at daybreak. Machine guns and ammunition are being hurried to the Federals.

The rebel attack yesterday morning was vigorous, and was marked by the death of a woman who led one of the fiercest assaults in spectacular fashion at the head of the band of insurrectos. The woman, identified as a relative of Carza Rivas, a rebel leader, died when charging the federals, waving a red flag and shouting encouragement to her countrymen.

Twenty rebels and fifteen federals are known to have been killed. About 40 were wounded.

TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY.

Guard Johnson, of the Richmond penitentiary, arrived at the city jail this afternoon and took charge of three negroes—Rozier Alexander, sentenced to serve five years for grand larceny; William Jackson and Edward Johnson, sentenced to serve two years for grand larceny, and Edward Taylor, one year for petit larceny—third offense. The guard later proceeded to the jail in Alexandria county, and took charge of several prisoners who have been sentenced to serve terms in prison.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Rev. Hugh V. Wilson, pastor of St. Gregory's Episcopal Church and one of the best known clergymen in Passaic, N. J., announced yesterday that hereafter he would refuse to marry couples who do not present certificates from physicians indicating their physical and mental fitness. Mr. Wilson said there had been so many unfit marriages in the past that he believed something should be done to avoid them in the future.

In preparation for the final effort to save Porter Charlton from being extradited to Italy for trial for the murder of his wife at Lake Como, in 1910, the attorneys yesterday filed in the United States Supreme Court the brief upon which he bases his last hope. The appeal of Paul Charlton, the father of Porter Charlton, is directed against James J. Kelly, Sheriff of Hudson County, N. Y., and Gustavo de Rosa, Italian vice consul, and its purpose is to reverse the final decision of the United States Circuit Court for the District of New Jersey discharging the writ of habeas corpus asked for by the father of Porter Charlton. The defense is based mainly upon the ground that the Italian government having ignored certain provisions of the extradition treaty with the United States, the treaty no longer is binding, and does not authorize the President to turn over to Italy alleged criminals of American nativity.

Overcome by noxious gases as he was descending a ladder in a sewer manhole at Newark, N. J., Sunday, Frederick Martin, 67 years old, fell into the water rushing in a torrent through the six-foot main and was swept away. Manhole after manhole for a distance of several blocks away was opened as the alarm was given, and rescue parties tried to head off the victim's body. The effort was unsuccessful, however, and it is believed that Martin was swept into the open creek which the sewer becomes as it passes through the meadows and on into the water of Newark Bay.

Scores of residents of the fashionable neighborhood about Kilbourne place northwest, Washington, last night assisted the police in a fruitless search of Rock Creek park, the zoo, and adjacent territory for Granville Dickey, the 10-year-old son of Raymond B. Dickey, a lawyer. After spending the week in bed with the mumps, the youngster slipped out of the house yesterday afternoon and disappeared, and until after midnight 100 or more men with flashlights and lanterns beat through the bushes in the park and searched among the dark and lonely recesses along the creek, but not a trace of him could be found.

A five--and-ten-cent store in Red Bank, N. J., was wrecked yesterday by an angry mob that objected to St. Patrick's Day souvenirs displayed in the windows, declaring that the display held up to ridicule things which they considered sacred. When the store opened yesterday morning the parish priest called on the proprietors and demanded the removal of the souvenirs. Two hundred persons gathered outside the store, and when the priest reported that his mission had failed the mob rushed in, tore the offending articles from the windows and counters and trampled them underfoot. Counters were upset and other goods were destroyed.

"Come in and get me if you want me," taunted Samuel Lutz, as he stood neck deep, in chilly waters of White River at Indianapolis, Ind., while Patrolman Romine calmly sat on the river bank Sunday. "Just take your time and when you come out I will get you," retorted the policeman, "I'm in no hurry." And the officer and his quarry waited, while a large crowd gathered. Lutz's teeth began to chatter, his lips became a sickly purple and great black circles appeared under his eyes. Then, either too cold to try to swim across the river or realizing that the officer could beat him to the other shore. Lutz yielded and waded out to Patrolman Romine. Lutz, who was charged with intoxication, had started a fight in a restaurant over his cheek, and ran into the river when the patrolman appeared.

DIED.

At her home, 514 Cameron street, on Tuesday March 17, 1913, ALMIRA GOODHAND, aged 78 years. Her funeral will take place at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Services will be conducted by Rev. H. M. Canter, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

LIMITED TRAIN THROWN IN DITCH

Cause of Accident Unknown. May Have Resulted From Broken Rail.

EIGHTEEN INJURED.

One of the Derailed Cars Turns Over and Fire Breaks Out, Destroying Two of the Coaches.

Marshalltown, Iowa, March 18.—Eighteen people were injured, four perhaps fatally when the Twin City Limited on the Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad, went into a ditch east of here early today. The cause of the accident is unknown, but is supposed to have been a broken rail.

Two chair cars, a combination car and one sleeper, leftthe rails and the chair cars and combination turned completely over. Fire started in one chair car and before the city fire department could respond, one chair car and the combination car were burned. A majority of the injured of the passengers were in the chair cars.

Declare Bible Paper Pope.

"The Methodist Church has come to the parting of the ways," declared Rev. Dr. Jay Benson Hamilton, of Trinity Church, Harlem, one of the foremost ministers of that faith, in condemning the "paper pope" campaign at a meeting of 500 Methodist ministers in New York yesterday. Several weeks ago a book of "higher criticism," published by a Methodist book concern, declared that the more advanced ministers looked upon the Bible as "part fiction, part history, and still another part God's word." In connection with criticism of the publication, several ministers declared that the "paper pope," the Bible, would have to be discredited in part, as they said the Pope of Rome had been by Martin Luther.

The assertion that a majority of those present at today's meeting had declared in favor of the "Higher Criticism" and against the views held by Dr. Hamilton was made by many of those present at the meeting. The argument at times was very heated. Clergymen from Boston, Philadelphia, and various points of New Jersey took part in the discussion.

Accuses Fortune Teller.

York, Pa., March 18.—The arrest of C. H. Carr and wife, the latter a fortune teller, gave publicity to a story of how William A. Free, a real estate dealr, who it is alleged, swindled out of $2,000.

Free wanted to improve his business and went to Mrs. Carr, who was known as Madame Westley, to get her advice on how to succeed. Free says Madame Westley is said to have told him to bring to her $2,000 in an envelope on which she would cast a spell and his luck would turn for the better.

The real estate dealer avers that he took the money to the fortune teller and that she exchanged envelopes; that she told him to hide the envelope which he received for nine days and not to open it before that time, and that when at the expiration of this time he opened the envelope he found it to contain only blank paper. When he went to find Madame Westley she was missing.

After a search of two months Chief of Detectives Stoner arrested the couple in Pittsburgh.

A HIGH COMPLIMENT.

Charles H. Callahan has received a letter from Miss Harriett Clayton Comegys, Regent of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union, highly complimenting his work, "Washington, The Man and the Mason." In closing her communication Miss Comeygs says: "In the name of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, I thank you for having written this book. We shall gladly place it in Washington's Library at Mount Vernon and on our shelves in our own homes."

This is an unusual courtesy and should be and do doubt is very gratifying to both the writer and the Memorial Committee.

WILL OBSERVE PURIM.

Feast of Lots Next Sunday Will Celebrate Victory of Mordecai.

Purim, the Feast of Lots, a half holiday in the Jewish calendar, will be celebrated next Sunday. The synagogal service for this festival is limited to the reading of the Book of Esther, upon the story of which the celebration is based.

Purim celebrates the victory of Mordecai, the faithful Jew, over Haman, the grand vizier of the King Ahasureus, who plotted to destroy the Jew. Queen Esther, it will be remembered, had been elevated to the throne to succeed Vashti, who had displeased the king. Esther was a most beautiful and virtuous maiden, and it was through her intervention with the King that the heroism of Mordecai and the villiany of Haman was disclosed to him.

The story of the Book of Esther affords pleasant reading. While the name of God nowhere appears, the working of a divine providence is apparent throughout.

Purim means "lots," and the festival is so called because the day on which the destruction of the Jews was decreed was chosen by lot.

Purim is a time of general festivity among the Jews and like most festivals, of the Jewish calendar, it is a time for the giving of gifts to the poor.

Services appropriate to the occasion will be held in the synagogue in this city.

PRESIDENT REFUSES ALL GIFTS

Returns Gold-Trimmed Razor Strop And Other Things.

A razor strop with gold mounted trimmings, a paper weight, and one or two other things were received at the White House yesterday from admirers af the Administration, but each gift was returned with a note from the President, in which he stated that he appreciated the spirit which prompted the gift, but that it was returned in accordance with a decision not to accept presents of any kind from any source.

Since the President has been in office a great many things have been received, but they have been invariably sent back to the senders, each with a little note of appreciation.

Of course, many of the gifts are trivial, as far as value is concerned, and represent nothing but the good feeling of the sender. At the same time the President feels that it is unwise to establish precedents, so far as his administration is concerned, and it would be very difficult to draw the line between those which could be accepted with propriety and those which might be ragarded as implying some obligation on his part. The "twilight zone" must become uncomfortably large, and it is understood Mr. Wilson feels the only safe rule is to return all presents.

Secretary Tumulty fondled the handsome razor strop lovingly as he returned it to its box after showing it to a number of correspondents who happened to be in his office. The strop consisted of two broad leather straps, and linked together at the top with gold plated clasps and a shackle.

DEMOCRATIC NEGRO NOW.

Colored Aspirant to Office Simply Changes Badges.

Just before the close of the Taft administration, a tall negro, wearing a large Taft badge, visited the White House in search of a position. He said he was a strong Taft man. Yesterday word came to Secretary Tumulty that there was a negro outside his office who desired to see him and Mr. Tumulty sent Thomas W. Brahaney, the chief clerk of the White House staff, to interview the visitor.

There was mutual recognition between Mr. Brahaney and the colored man. Mr. Brahaney recalled him as the negro who had worn the Taft badge and who had told Mr. Brahaney, at the time of his previous visit, how fond he was of the Republican President.

The visitor was taken back when Mr. Brahaney appeared.

"I done thought you'd gone away," he said.

"No," said Mr. Brahaney, "like yourself, I am a lifelong Democrat."

The colored man was wearing a large badge with Woodrow Wilson's picture on the same geographical spot where previously the Taft badge had been.

BODY OF RECLUSE LIES UNCLAIMED

Manuel de Fuentes Bustillo, Former Spanish General, Dead.

COMPANIONS CATS.

Felines, Guarding Corpse, Spring at Police When Latter Enter—Secret of Maine Horror.

New York, March 18.—The body of Manuel de Funtes Bustillo, seventy years old and a one time general in the Spanish Army lies unclaimed in the morgue today. For eighteen years the grizzled veteran had been a recluse in a dingy little room on the top floor of an east side hotel. His only companions were his four cats. When the police broke into his room after the landlady had detected the odor of gas coming through the cracks around the locked door they found the old Spaniard dead on his bed His four pet cats sat around the body and bristled with anger as the police came in. When one of the officers approached the bed the cats sprang at him and he was painfully bitten and scratched. Busillio, the landlady told the police, had given her some inkling of his past. Twenty years ago, when one of the most popular generals of the army at Madrid, he had an unfortunate love affair. He resigned from the army and came to New York. He had property that yielded him sufficient income to live frugally and for the past ten years had hardly ever left his hotel room. He was known throughout the neighborhood as "the man with the cats."

Bustillio was at one time a spy for the Spanish government and probably one of the greatest spies in history. He was one o fthe few men now believed to have known the facts concerning the blowing up of the battleship Maine in Havana Harbor. The United States government has spent fortunes in trying to solve this problem, but with the death of Bustillio the secret may be lost forever.

PROBING EATON'S DEATH.

A sharp police surveillance over the home of Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, U. S. N., whose mysterious illness and sudden death in his Rockland Mass., home is the subject of investigation, continued yesterday, while the inquest in the Hingham District Court went on in secret. Not a single member of the family was allowed to leave the house without being accompanied by a policeman. Newspaper men and curious persons were forced to move on by officers, who constantly guarded the premises.

Mrs. Ralph P. Keyes, stepdaughter of the admiral, was indignant when a policeman accompanied her on a shopping trip today. She told him it was an injustice that the Eaton family should thus be cut off from the rest of the world and kept under espionage. "The police are rummaging the house from top to bottom," she said, "going in and out and causing no end of excitement among members of the household." Mrs. Keyes' escort did not leave her for a minute while she was making her purchases.

The inquest was suddenly shifted to the Eaton house yesterday afternoon, where the testimony of Mrs. George Harrison, Mrs. Eaton's mother, who is not expected to live, was taken at her bedside. She was in the house at the time of the admiral's last hours is considered highly important.

WAR UPON "SPEAK-EASIES."

A campaign has been started in Alexandria county against "speak easies." A meeting of Clarendon, Va., citizens was held last evening, and will be followed Friday evening with a mass meeting, at Neighborhood House, Vanderwerke, to enlist the support of the citizens of that town.

The first object of the campaign will be to prevent the relicensing of the Arlington Brewery Company, of Roslyn, according to members of the committee in charge of the movement, which comprises D. Wheeler, Henry Crocker, H. R. Thomas, Lane, and Davidson. It is said the renewal of licenses will be brought before the Alexandria county Circuit Count in the next two months, and a determined attempt will be made to show that certain interests are co-operating with "speak-easies" in the county and should be eradicated.

CORPORATIONS WILL BE LISTED

Auditor Moore Directs Commissioner Callahan to Act in Matter.

ADDITION TO REVENUE

State Would Receive $35,000 and City, if Action is Taken, Would Add $175,000 to Receipts.

More than 50 corporations whose home office is located in Alexandria, but whose business is conducted elsewhere, principally in Washington, will be affected by the ruling of C. Lee Moore, state auditor of Virginia, who has instructed Charles H. Callahan, commissioner of revenue of Alexandria, to assess the capital stock of all such corporations. For many years there has been a law on the statute books requiring all corporations to pay taxes on their capital stock, but no attempt has been made to enforce it. Mr. Moore, a former Alexandrian, who was elected state auditor a year ago, has been digging up many old laws and requiring their enforcement, and among them is the one in reference to foreign corporations.

Mr. Callahan stated this morning that he had received instructions from Mr. Moore, and that there was nothing left for him to do but carry them out. He will leave the necessary blanks with the attorney of each company in their offices in this city.

Many of the largest companies in Washington will be affected by the ruling of the state auditor if the provisions of the law are carried out. Practically all of the big hotels, apartment houses and other companies are incorporated under the Virginia law. The capital stock of the Washington companies whose home offices are located here is about $10,000,000 and the taxes they would be compelled to pay to the state would amount to about $35,000. If the city of Alexandria should follow the ruling of the state, as it has a right to do, and enabled to to collect taxes on the capital stock of the foreign corporations which have their legal home here, the revenue on $10,000,000, at the present rate of taxation, would amount to approximately $175,000 per annum.

It is believed by those familiarwith the situation that Mr. Moore will be able to carry out his plan even if law does contemplate such a procedure. Few of the foreign corporations have any actual property in Virginia which is not now taxed, but pay their taxes wherever their holdings are located.

BIG REAL ESTATE SALE.

Real Estate Corporation to Sell Lots In Northeastern Section by Auction.

One of the largest real estate sales which Alexandria has had in years will take place on Friday, March 28th, when the Real Estate and Investment Corporation, composed of a number of well known young business men of Alexandria, will sell at public auction the square of land bounded by Oronoco, Fayette, Princess and Payne streets. This desirable property is located in the northwest section of the city and is desirable for residences. It has been subdivided into lots which will no doubt have a ready sale.

K. W. Cobb, of The Atlantic Coast Realty Company, of Greenville, N. C., arrived here today to conduct the sale.

Death From Rabies.

Chicago, Ill., March 18.—The body of Fred Pepper, a 15-year old schoolboy, who saved a score of little girls from a mad dog and was himself bitten, was shipped to his home in Strasburg, Ill., today. The young hero died yesterday from rabies.

Two practical jokers brought a stray poodle dog into the room at the Prairie High School in Shulby county, Ill. They "sicked" him upon a group of girls.

Pepper said the dog's jaws were foaming and he seized him by the neck. The poodle bit him on the hand.

STRUCK WITH IRON LAST.

Two Knights of St. Crispin Engage in Fight—One Seriously Hurt

An altercation took place yesterday afternoon at the Puff Shoe Factory on south Washington street, between Edward Dean and William Trigger, two young men, during which the former is charged with using a last as a missile and seriously injuring Trigger.

Dean was subsequently arrested and the case was called in the Police Court this morning, when it was learned that Trigger, who is at the Alexandria Hospital, would be unable to appear for several days.

The alleged assailant was released upon a bond of $100, furnished by his father, for his appearance on Friday morning next, when, it is expected, the injured man will be able to leave the hospital.

A gentleman of this city who was called to a residence on Cameron street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, shortly before nine o'clock last night was attacked on that square by two dogs—one black and the other white—and he barely escaped being bitten by the curs. It seems that these canines have infested that neighborhood for some time and complaints have been made concerning their viciousness on other occasions.

New Modes in Women's Afternoon and Evening Dresses for Easter

Never were women more favored with attractive styles in Afternoon and Evening Dresses. From distinguished sources we have gathered exceedingly charming modes, and have given close heed to the preference so strongly manifested for the luxuriously soft, clinging fabrics required for the exquisite drapod styles.

The soft, unbroken lines of fashion are still retained, although the various drapings introduce many novel designs; fashion has wrought various innovations to accomplish results that are altogether more desirable than any that have been shown before.

Exceptionally interesting assortments have arrived during the past week, the materials being crepe meteor, crepe de chine, charmeuse, moire, fancy foulards, eponge, brocade, ratine, some made with lace vestees, others trimmed with lace collars, chiffon and fancy buttons; high, ve and low round neck model.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

SIDNA ALLEN'S DENIAL.

Wonders Why Preacher Withheld Information so Long.

Richmond, March 18.—Sidna Allen yesterday morning emphatically repudiated the statement that he had even threatened the life of any judge, prosecuting attorney or court officer.

"The letter written to Governor Mann by Mr. Carter, in which Mr. Carter said I told him just after I was acquitted of counterfeiting that had I been convicted the judge and district attorney would have been shot to death, is unqualified false," said Sidna, "and is without foundation of truth."

Sidna Allen deplored the fact that he was not allowed sufficiently liberty to disprove the charges laid before the Governor by the Rev. Mr. Carter, but said he would do everything in his power to give the Governor the proof.

The letter in question was written on March 7th by Rev. Edward T. Carter, of Newbern, N. C. According to the letter the minister, who is the pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Newbern, was formerly a resident of Mt. Airy.

He tells Governor Mann that he returned to Mt. Airy on the train with Sidna Allen immediately after the latter's acquittal, and that Sidna said it was a mighty good thing the case turned out as it did, otherwise Judge Boyd and Attorney Holton "would have been shot dead." Sidna says the minister puts the words in his mouth. "It was a mighty close call," Sidna is made to say, "but it was a d—good thing for the court that I was acquitted. We had our guns with us, and Judge Boyd would never have lived to sentence me, for my brothers and I have made an agreement that not one of truth in them, and I a msurprised tiary."

In reply to this Sidna yesterday morning said:

"I never made any such statement to Mr. Carter, nor to any other man in my life. His charges against me are absolutely false. There is not a word of truth in them, and I am surprised that Mr. Carter, who, I understand, is a minister of the gospel, should have made them.

"It is also very strange to me that if he knew these things all this time he withheld them until after my trial and until I was locked up in the penitentiary without any chance of defending myself and proving them false."

"Mr. Carter is a free man, with all the rights and privileges which freedom gives. I am a helpless convict. He makes these charges against me. They are absolutely without foundation or truth. I make affidavit to that fact, and at the same time will do what I can to prove them untrue; yet you see my helpless condition.

"I do not curse, and do not think any of my neighbors can make the statement that I do; therefore, in talking to a minister it seems strange that I should have used language to which I was not accustomed.

"I came on the train about three years ago from Greensboro to Mt. Airy, I was with Walter S. Tipton, Floyd Allen, Garland and Jasper Allen. My other brother was not with me. Two of my brothers were witnesses in the case, Floyd being one of them. Most of the time I was with Walter Tipton. My attorneys were J. C. Buxton and Walter Tipton. I do not know whether I have ever met Mr. Carter. Mr. Hill of the firm of West & Hill, wholesale grocers at Mt. Airy, introduced me to a minister, who I understood preached at Mt. Airy. I cannot say whether I met him in Greensboro, Mt. Airy or on the train."

Records Sent to Richmond.

Wytheville, Va., March 18.—Transcript of record in the case of Commonwealth vs. Claude Allen, as requested of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals at Richmond last Saturday noon, was sent to Richmond last night. It contains some 220 typewritten pages. There are 38 bills of exception. It is thought that an attempt will be made to appeal Claude Allen's case to the United States Supreme Court on the ground that his life was placed in jeopardy twice for the same offense.

LONG REIGN OF TERROR.

Judge Jackson Tells What he Knows of Allen Clan.

In a lengthy communication to Governor Mann, Judge Robert C. Jackson, formerly of the Twenty-first judicial circuit, which embraces the Hillsville court, on January 27th acquainted his excellency with facts relative to the Allen clan in Carroll county, and to what he speaks of as "the overbearing, vindicative, high-tempered, brutal' character of Floyd Allen, who, he claims, has "no respect for law and little or no regard for human life."

The letter from Judge Jackson to Governor Mann, which is now made public for the first time, was written in response to a request from the Virginia executive for information relative to the Allen clan of Carroll. It was received by Governor Mann and read by him some time before he announced his final decision in the appeals for commutation for the two prisoners.

For some years Judge Jackson presided over the same court in which the late Judge Thornton L. Massie met his untimely end. He is thoroughly acquainted with the temper and character of the Allens. He alleges that the Allens were for many years Republicans in Carroll, like Dexter Goad, and denies that the tragedy at Hillsville was due to political friction. He called upon Governor Mann to come to the aid of the courts and maintain order and the dignity of the law—"though hampered and handicapped by influences, born of ignorance, prejudice and flabby sentimentality.'

Among other things Judge Jackson says:

"During my term of office, Floyd Allen was several times charged with violations of law. In several instances he escaped indictment, I am satisfied, because the witnesses were afraid to testify to the facts before the grand jury.

"In one instance he was indicted and tried. In the spring of 1904, for some slight offense, he assaulted an inoffensive man by the name of Combs and attempted to kill him. Before Floyd Allen was put upon trial for this attack upon Combs, Sheriff Blankenship and Comonwealth's Attorney Foster came to me and stated that if Allen was convicted and given either a penitentiary or jail sentence, he would not hesitate to resist, and if necessary to make his resistance effectual, shoot up the court and its officers. They further informed me that Floyd Allen had frequently declared that he would never submit to any jail or penitentiary sentence for any offense he might commit, and requested me to have him disarmed. I refused to have him disarmed and gave it as my reason that if men like Floyd Allen in Carroll county were made to think that the court and its officers feared violence at their hands, nothing could be done to maintain the supremacy of the law in that section. I instructed the officers, however, to select several true and tried men, arm them and station them in convenient reach of Floyd Allen and any of his clan who might be present, with instructions that if he should be convicted and attempted resistance, to do whatever appeared necessary to suppress any such effort.

"On the trial of this case Floyd Allen was convicted by the jury and fined $100 and given one hour in the county jail. A motion was made to set the verdict aside, which motion was overruled by the court, and thereupon, Allen's counsel signified a desire to appeal the case, and asked bail for the prisoner. Bail was granted and in the meantime the governor was petitioned by Allen's counsel for pardon in so far as a jail sentence was imposed upon him, and the prayer of the petition was granted.

"After this trial, I was informed by a number of reputable citizens that Floyd Allen, in their presence, declared that, if an attempt had been made to send him to jail, he intended to kill the judge of the court and as many of its officers as he possibly could before being taken. Floyd Allen was defended at that trial by Judge Oglesby and Mr. Tipton. A day or two after the March tragedy Judge Oglesby was interviewed by one of the Bristol papers, and in that interview gave a brief account of the trial of Floyd Allen for the assault on Combs, in 1904, and stated that the same thing would have occurred then that occurred in March had it not been for the course the trial happened to take.

"I desire to say that for a number of years the struggle between law and lawlessness in Carroll county has been a strenuous one. To the cause of law and order in that section Judge Massie, William Foster and Lewis Webb gave their lives. Whether the moral effect of their martyrdom shall go to strengthen the foundation of public order, or whether it shall be frittered away, and the feud go on in the future as it has in the past on Carroll soil, between law and lawlessness depends largely on your action. The courts of the commonwealth, though hampered and handicapped by influences, born of ignorance, prejudice and flabby sentimentality, have done their best to wipe out this horrible stain and maintain the supremacy of the law.

"Law abiding men not only in Carroll county, but in every section of the commonwealth, hope and believe that you will take no step, and render no decision in this matter, which would trend to encourage crime, or unsettle the foundations of public peace and order in Carroll county and elsewhere.

WIDOW LOSES SUIT.

Mrs. Thomas Brown Fails to Get Verdict Against R. Lee Taylor.

Luray, Va., March 18.—The $10,000 damage suit of Mrs. Thomas Brown, of Rappahannock county, against R. Lee Taylor, a justice of the peace, politician and wealthy farmer of that county, who in March, 1911, shot and killed the woman's husband, was decided by a jury in that county Saturday, Taylor being exonerated of all blame.

Taylor, in the capacity of magistrate, is alleged to have had Brown brought before him for some difficulty between himself and Brown, the latter being fined and sent to jail for thirty days.

When the sentence had been served the two men met and the trouble was renewed. Taylor, it was claimed, shooting Brown in self-defense. A jury refused to indict Taylor for the killing.

Taylor was represented by Colonel Robert Leedy, of the Second Virginia regiment. State Senator John Paul, Charles A. Hanner and R. B. Stephenson represented Mrs. Brown.

THE GATHERING WAR CLOUD IN EUROPE.

Perry S. Heath landed at New York yesterday morning on the George Washington. Mr. Heath sailed on February 18 to look after important financial business for American capitalists with whom he is associated.

"One hears little but war and preparation for war in Europe just now," said Mr. Heath. "Established business is about normal, but there is no thought of expansion of new enterprises. It is laughable the way England and Germany are glaring at each other. Each is afraid of the other.

"More warships—lots more—and an aerial fleet are demanded by what appears to be of a large majority of the English subjects. And they demand that something be done to strengthen the army. Germany is providing a army of 900,000 men, France 750,000 and both countries are conducting secret legislative caucuses for war preparations. Germany proposes to spend $250,000,000 for war preparations and add $5,000,000 to the annual army and navy expenses. France proposes an income tax, like that of Germany, to meet the extraordinary expense of war preparation and to provide a three-year enlistment and an unusually drastic conscription. Only old age and extreme youth will escape service in France."

Notwithstanding the optimistic expressions of the many enthusiasts, who dream the world is rising above carnage and that the sword is about to be beaten into a pruning hook, the fact remains that more money is being spent in armor than ever. The outcome o fthe war between Turkey and the Balkan allies is viewed with anxiety in every capital in Europe, and the preparations for eventualities is significant. All the great powers are donning mail and watching signs which appear and disappear upon the political sky.

BOUND TO TRACK.

Terrible Experience of Night Operator.

Fowlerville, N. Y., March 18.—Bound to the rails with the rumble of an approaching through freight train growing in his ears night operator Martin, of the Pfifard Station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, five miles below here, lay awaiting for death just before dawn today. He had been attacked by two white men and a negro, gagged, trussed up and securely fastened to the northbound track.

As he lay helpless he could feel the rail to which he was bound begin to hum and vibrate under the far off beat of the heavy freight's wheels. He struggled in vain to free himself and finally with fearful resignation gave up the fight and lay listening to the swiftly approaching train.

Flat on his back, Martin looked straight into the star lit sky. H esaid afterward the stars never looked so brilliant, or so near to him, as during those agonizing moments that followed.

Martin was in such a position that he could not look down the track and see the headlight of the approaching freight engine, but he could tell by the rumbling of the ground and the increasing roar in his ears that death was but a minute away.

Then came the blast of the engine's whistle, blowing for signals. I flashed over the helpless operator that he had just one chance for his life. Not getting any answering signals from the semaphore, the freight engineer should, under the rules or the road, stop to see what was the matter.

Martin knew by experience that some engineers would and some would not obey the letter of the regulations. He knew that Engineer Sefried was driving the through freight and had a reputation for carefulness. Martin put al his trust in what he had heard of Sefried and prayed that he was not misled.

His faith was justified when he heard the short whistle blasts for brakes and the creaking screech of the grinding wheels down the track. Sefried stopped his train a bare 100 feet from the halpless operator.

Martin could give no reason for the attack upon him. He said he had never seen the men before.

MAY BE SENT TO JAIL.

Grim's Bond Forfeited And Security Required in $500.

Lynchburg, Va., March 18.—John J. Grim, the well-known minor league baseball man, who now owns the franchise at Kingston, in the new league around New York city, was yesterday fined $25 for smashing a window in the home of Mrs. Mary F. Gleason, his mother-in-law, his personal peace bond for $150 was forfeited, and he was held in $500 bond for his good behavior for a year.

Grim is said to be broke and he may experience trouble furnishing the bond. In that case he would have to go to jail.

Grim's wife quit him several weeks ago, and a week ago he was put under bond to remain away from her. Since that he has made several ineffectual efforts to get into her mother's home, claiming he wanted to get personal effects withheld by his wife.

Would Abolish Capital Punishment.

Paris, March 18.—The socialists this afternoon introduced into the Chamber of Deputies a bill abolishing capital punishment altogether. The measure was a counter-one to the govrnment bill abolishing public guillotininfg, but maintaining the death penalty.

Desperate Negro Killed.

Daniel T. Davis, a negro, was shot to death early yesterday by a policeman after Davis had accosted a young white woman at 135th street and Lenox avenue, New York, slashed the officer who came to her rescue. George Michaels, the patrolman, has a dozen cuts on his face, the negro using a razor and seeking to get at the officer's throat Michaels is in a serious condition at the Harlem Hospital from loss of blood. The young woman, who said she was Irene Leslie, a cabaret singer, ran to Michaels an dcried out that a negro had grabbed her just as she left the subway station. She told the officer how she had broken away, and was giving details, when the negro ran up to the pair, again grabbed the woman's arm and cried out, "Come with me." Michaels demanded to know what he meant "I want this woman," said the negro in a surely tone. The officer pushed him and Davis sprang at Michales. A fight followed. Suddenly the negro drew a razor and slashed Michael's across the face several times. Then he kicked him and as Michaels fell the negro dashed away. Michaels regained his feet and started in pursuit. He called on the negro to halt, but he did not obey. Then Michaels fired four shots after the fugitive, two taking effect. At this time Patrolman Heppenheimer ran from Lenox avenue, and also fired four shots. The negro slowed down in his staggering run and fell dead.

Recruits and vets. have heeded to the managerial call,
And way down yonder Griffith's men are busy playing ball,
And getting in condition for the coming season's fray,
While all the fans are looking forward to the op'ning day.

The youngsters all are working hard to stay on with the squad,
For they don't want to go back home and work with pick or hod,
And it would be disgraceful if they'd to the minors go,
After getting opportunities to shine in the big show.

Now George McBride and Foster, and Morgan and Laporte
Twice every day upon the green their infield antics sport,
And in the batting practice, Milar calls out "Whatcha got?"
Then straightway slams the horsehide 'bout half a mile out the lot.

And Gandil, our first-sacker, steps up to the old home-plate,
And smiles some at the motion of the long-haired Bush-League skate
Who's pitching to the batters with great energy and will Then, Bing! it takes nine kids four hours to find the blooming pill.

But over in a corner crowds upon the bleachers sit,
And listen to the fast ones smack in Eddie Ainsmith's mit,
It isn't cannon balls he's catching, that's a sport's that tame
To Walter Johnson's warming-up, before the practice game.

Covington, Va., March 18.—A five-year-old colored child was struck and killed at Loowmoor Sunday evening by an automobile owned and driven by Frank Null, of this place. Mr. Null and a party of friends were returning from Clifton Forge, and while passing through Lowmoor they overtook three colored children. Two of them got out of the way on one side of the road and one got out of the way on the other side, and without any warning just as the car was about to pass, undertook to join her companions. She was unable to do so before she was struck on the head by one of the lamps of the car and instantly killed. After a thorough examination by the authorities, Mr. Null was exonerated from all blame, as it was unavoidable on his part. He paid all burial expenses.

A New Kind of Roofing

Asphalt Gravel That Will Last Ten Years—Can be Used Anywhere.

Cumberland, Md. — Among the many improvements at the new Y. M. C. building is the asphalt gravel roof (Security brand) that was put on under direction of Mr. Adam May.

A fairy tale is told about this roofing by Mr. A. M. Strickland, of Elkton, Md. About fifteen years ago he built the Elkton Foundry and covered the roof with Security Asphalt Gravel roofing and four years afterward the building and contents were consumed by fire. Nothing was left but the walls and roofing.

Being of an economical turn of mind he ordered the carpenters to cut down the roofing in strips, losing only the laps.

He used these strips of roofing on the new foundry building and it is in good condition today after ten years of active service.

It would be difficult to believe such a tale, because tin, iron and slate or any other composition roofing would have gone to smash or curled up and blown away in such a conflagration.

There is reason to believe that this true, because it stood the test in a similar fire in the B. & O. hay shed at Mt. Clare Station, Baltimore, some years ago.

This roofing can be purchased of

An Ordinance.

An ordinance to provide for the grading and paving of a forty (40) foot roadway on Cameron street, from the west building line of Royal street to the east building line of Pitt street, and the space lying between the north and south building lines of Cameron street and the east and west building lines of Pitt street, and for the curbing of said street, under certain conditions.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia

Section 1.—That the Committee on streets is hereby authorized and directed to have Cameron street, from the west building line of Royal street to the east building line of Pitt street, and the space lying between the north and south building lines of Cameron street and the east and west building lines of Pitt street, with the exception as described in Section Three of this ordinance, graded and paved from curb to curb, and to have said street as above described, curbed in a good and substantial manner, under the supervision of the City Engineer; using for the paving vitrified brick on a five (5) inch concrete base, and for the curbing, a six (6) inch granite curb, set in concrete.

And the said Committee on Streets shall advertise for ten (10) days in some newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and in any other newspapers and publications should they deem it necessary, for proposals for materials, and they shall do said grading, paving and curbing by day labor, or if in their opinion the best interests of the City Council will be subserved thereby, by contract, under bond, after advertisement as hereinbefore provided for materials.

Section 2.—That the said Committee on Streets shall not begin said work, nor let any contract pertaining to labor or construction of said work, until an amount equivalent to One Dollar and Seventy-five ($1.75) Cents per front foot for one-half (1-2) of the linear feet of property on said square has been voluntarily deposited with the City Treasurer for defraying a portion of the expense of said grading, paving and curbing.

Said voluntary deposit may be all cash, or may be evidenced by five (5) equal promissory notes; the first not to be payable thirty (30) days after demand, demand to be made upon completion of said work, and the other notes to be payable in one, two, three and four years after the completion of said work, with interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum, payable at maturity, the payment of said notes to be secured in a manner satisfactory to a majority of the Finance Committee of the City Council of Alexandria, Virginia.

Section 3.—That no curb shall be set, and that on paving shall be done within 4 1-2 feet of the curb line in front of any property for which the proportionate expense hereinbefore mentioned shall not be deposited with the City Treasurer, either before or during the grading and paving of the center portion of said street directly in front of said property.

Section 4.—That the portion of the said street in front of any property which may not be curbed, graded and paved in the manner aforesaid by reason of Section Three of this ordinance, shall, upon their being voluntarily deposited with the City Treasurer, of an amount equivalent to the actual cost of labor and materials necessary to curb, grade and pave in front of said property, be so curbed, graded and paved. Said voluntary deposit shall conform with and be secured in the manner provided for voluntary deposits in Section Two of this ordinance.

Section 5.—That as said grading, paving and curbing is being done, the Auditor is authorized to draw warrants, from time to time, upon the Treasurer of this City, in an amount not to exceed Thirty-eight hundred and fifty ($3,850.00) Dollars, to pay for said grading, paving and curbing, and a sufficient amount of money for such purpose, not to exceed the sum of Thirty-Eight Hundred and Fifty ($3,850.00) Dollars, is hereby appropriated.

Section 6.—This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

For the past three days the inhabitants of the village of Fleurier, lying near Lake Neuchatel, in the shadow of Mount Caroline, Switzerland, have been in a state of panic. The top of the mountain is sliding slowly downward and threatens to overwhelm the place. She mass is moving at the rate of eight or nine inches an hour, and there is imminent danger of an acceleration in the speed of its descent. Most of the people have moved their belongings to the sides of neighboring hills, where they remain in the open watching the mountain peak in terror. A similar movement of Mount Carolina began in 1889, but ceased

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen:—In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew, steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity, I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Sworn affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Cause of Eczema Now Explained

Eczema, Psoriasis and other skin troubles are caused by myriads of germs at work in the skin. Salves have been tried but have been proven worthless, for they only clog the pores and fail utterly to remove the real cause of the disease.

These germs can be destroyed only by a wash, and unless this is promptly done, they rapidly multiply, gnawing their way deep into the sensitive tissue. This is what causes that awful itch, and what seemed a mere rash may grow worse and develop into a loathsome and torturing skin disease with its years of misery.

Don't take any chances! Destroy the germs at the beginning of the trouble with that soothing and cleansing wash, the D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

A 25c bottle is enough to prove what D.D.D. will do.

We have had experience with many remedies for skin trouble but have never seen such remarkable cures as those from D.D.D. Prescription.

We know many people have given up trying to find a cure for Eczema. They have tried most everything and seem to think there is nothing that will help them. Of course, we will not absolutely promise you that D.D.D. will cure you, but we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you, that we will give you the first $1.00 bottle on our personal guarantee that if you do not find it does the work it will not cost you a cent.

Drop in anyway and investigate the merits of this great remedy.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Margaret C. Collins, 35 years old, wife of C. Fenton Collins, a Washington druggist, was knocked down and instantly killed early last night by an automobile at Rhode Island avenue and Seventh street northwest. The driver of the high-powered racing car which struck the woman was arrested, and is being held without bail, pending the finding of the coroner's jury today. He is Arthur L. Williams, 21 years old. Williams, with two friends in his car, was driving eastward on Rhode Island avenue, when Mrs. Collins essayed to cross in front or him. Dr. Nevitt, the coroner, found that her skull was fractured at its base, and there was evidence of internal injuries.

Henry Hardman, 19 years old, is in jail on a charge of attempting to force his bride of 17 years to drink laudanum at their home in Cumberland, Md., Sunday afternoon. Neighbors heard the scuffle in the Hardman home, and when Edward B. Greel, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, entered, he found Hardman beating his young bride. The woman had been felled with a blow. The couple had been married only a short time. Mrs. Hardman claims her husband wanted her to drink the laudanum and then eat a plate of ice cream so that the poison would not burn her. When she resisted him he attempted to force her to drink the poison, the girl bride alleges.

Pope Pius yesterday published an apostolic letter decreeing a universal jubilee from Low Sunday, March 30, to December 8, the Feast of Immaculate Conception, in commemoration of the religious toleration edict issued by Emperor Constantine in the fourth century. The faithful must come to Rome and visit twice the churches of St. John Laterant, St. Peter's and St. Paul's, praying, confessing, taking communion and giving alms, or they must visit six times churches chosen by their own bishops and carry out the same devotion. Those thus attending the jubilee will enjoy plenary indulgence of all their sins.

Fragments of wreckage picked up yesterday on the coast of Norway gave conclusive evidence that the German steamer Peruvia, with its crew of 28 officers and men, was lost in a storm there some time ago. Dispatches with details of the wreckage recovered were received by the owners at stettin. The Peruvia was a ship of 2,600 tons. She had been posted as "missing" for several days.

"The hydroaeroplane is the ocean going ship of the future, and from now on I am going to devote all of my time to its development." This prophecy fell yesterday from the lips in New York of Orville Wright, one of the greatest living experts on aviation, who has just arrived from Europe, where he has been waging lawsuits to protect the Wright patents from infringement. "The hydroaeroplane is the one safe vehicle of passenger traffic which will overcome all dangers of land and sea," Mr. Wright went on. "The hydroaeroplane that I have in mind will be able to journey over and through the roughest sea, and, besides, we will be able to travel twice as fast as a steamship."

VIRGINIA ROAD MAKERS.

Trip Over Washington Streets Follows Talks on Highway Construction.

Two technical addresses and a sight seeing trip over some of the improved roads around Washington comprised the first day's program of the Virginia Road Builders' Association holding its second annual session at the Hotel Raleigh yesterday and today. Logan Waller Page, director, office of Public Roads, and J. St. J. Wilson, State Highway Commissioner of Virginia, spoke to the Association.

The Association is composed only of county officials, contractors and engineers, and it is concerned only with methods of building roads, and not with their promotion.

Maj. Edwin H. Gibson, of Culpeper county, Va., was to have spoken on road building in his county, but he did not arrive in time. It is probable that he will address the association today, as will C. S. Reeves, chief chemist in the office of public roads; William F. Cocke, of Richmond, assistant engineer, Virginia State Highway Commissioner; W. I. Lee, engineer, Tazewell county, Va.; and C. B. Scott, assistant engineer, Virginia State Highway commission.

The election of officers this afternoon will conclude the session. The present officers, elected in Richmond, Va., November 22, 1911, when the association was organized, are S. H. Fletcher, Lebanon, president; H. M. Darden, Suffolk, vice president; William F. Cocke, Norton, treasurer; and C. B. Scott, Lynchburg, treasurer.

WIDOW PROTESTS.

Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet Writes Open Letter Asking That She Retain Place.

Gainesville, Ga., March 18.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, wiow of the Confederate general and postmistress here for eight years, has issued a long open letter to President Wilson, protesting against the scheme to remove her and appoint Editor Ans. Hardy, of the Gainsville Eagle, as her successor.

Mrs. Longstreet charges that Representative T. M. Bell, of this district, wants the place to pay a political henchman for getting votes for him, and the Georgia Power Company seeks to oust her because she is fighting its attempt to destroy Tallulah Falls, which she says belongs to the State.

Mrs. Longstreet tells President Wilson she was twice commissioned under Roosevelt, and asks if a Democrat, Southern born, will be less generous to the widow of a Confederate general than a Republican, Northern born.

"I cannot believe," says Mrs. Longstreet, "that you will bar a woman who has made good, as the records show, in order that a politician may provide for his henchman."

Mrs. Longstreet enthusiastically supported Roosevelt in the last campaign and the regular Republican leaders in Georgia urged Taft to remove her, but he refused.

Burns Fatal to Little Girl.

Baltimore, March 18.—Sarah Bell, the five-year-old girl who was severely burned on March 9 at her home in Northumberland county, Va., while trying to extinguish a fire among dry leaves in the yard, died here Sunday in Franklin Square Hospital.

Every effort was made by the physicians here to save the little girl's life, but the injuries were too severe. The body will be sent back to her Virginia home.
